Councilman Dudley Gregorie (arrived @ 7:35)

- Reports that our neighbor at the end of 11th Ave next to park entrance has been informed that he must remove the barriers so that bikes and baby strollers can pass through, this was a follow-up to Petar's request
- Short-term rental data is not available, follow-up to Sis's inquiry
- 2019 city budget will include increase spending for flooding mitigation
- Also working on sink holes on Grove and Dunnemann
- Also reminded us to lock our cars

New Business:

YOM - : Aug 2018 900 Ashley Ave, Carter Helms

Charleston Parks Conservancy: Alston reports of three initiatives:

1. Develop a Community Garden in Corrine Jones Park
2. Hampton Park Café upgrades to serve residents' events and CPC music events, Sam asked discussion to end until CPC comes to WTNA to present
3. Stables will be torn down and rebuilt as a venue, is 3 years off

Peninsular Neighborhood Consortium

Alston attended and Ansonborough is concerned about the new hotel on N Market and potential problems

Airbnb is now in business in Charleston

Members and Residents

Sunshine: Sis Marshall absent

Presentations/ Future Scheduling: None

Questions/Concerns:

Mike Turner suggested producing a brochure for WTNA residents;
Anna McAllister requested that we purchase a wireless microphone – often hard to hear speakers during meetings;
Amber volunteered Lowndes Grove for meets and greets, perhaps 4 times a year as suggested by Jarett Nicholson;
Perhaps a table could be set up for residents to give email addresses to keep neighbors informed of WTNA info;
Kathleen Donnelly again suggested we create a Community Outreach director, members voted unanimously to support such a position

Meeting was adjourned @ 7:50

Next WTNA Meeting is September 17, 2018
