PNC – Peninsular Neighborhood Consortium

Alston attended meeting, WTNA is one of 13 neighborhood associations on the peninsula

Gather to discuss issues facing our neighborhoods, for example, The Dewberry continues to hold loud, disruptive parties on their rooftop; Ansonborough is fighting a 5 story hotel in the market area

Questions/Concerns:

- Lyn Smith suggested that a volunteer from WTNA attend the Town and Gown meetings at The Citadel; Alston will contact Col Crawford for information; Dr. Kim Hall has volunteered
- Dr. Kim Hall is concerned about the grand trees (cypress tree specifically) on The Citadel's Dunnemann property being cut down; sink hold was not addressed and currently has a cone in it
- Petar Lemajic is taking the boat taxi to Daniel Island during the bridge repair, recommends it and says it is a 20 min. ride and he is only one on it; $15 round trip; leaves from Maritime Center @ 7:30, 8:30, 9:30 and returns to city at 4, 5 and 6 o'clock

Meeting was adjourned @ 7:40
