Ongoing Business

- Sunshine : Sis Marshall had foot surgery

Scheduling

a. Magnolia –scheduled for April meeting

New Business:

1. The new utility poles in Hampton Park are collecting water and trash – there is no drainage mechanism to address this problem– SCE&G needs to address this
2. Shrubbery at the base of the new utility poles needs to be extended into Wagener Terrace – we will discuss our choices and contact SCE&G

Speakers:

Senator Marlon Kimpson: Spoke to WTNA about his three legislative proposals to address the affordable housing problem

1. Raise the document stamp fee .20 cents
2. Allow city/county to raise fees on commercial building projects
3. Provide state income tax credit for those with limited financial means/income below a certain level

He is also still dealing with utility companies and their methodology in informing residents of impactful projects like the large SCE&G utility poles.

Laura Cabiness: Addressed the numerous flooding hot spots in Wagener Terrace.

a. Mary Murray at Cleveland- inlets were closed and are now open

b. Addlestone – working on pipes
c. Grove/Rutledge- affected tidally and there is an undersized drainage system. Will continue to monitor.
d. Gordon between Rutledge and 11th Ave- low area- schedule cleaning and will make sure there are no roots impeding flow or pipe collapses
e. Kyle Pl – Gordon St is key to solving this problem

Erin Fennel of James Simons Montessori: 2nd Annual Fundraiser will be held on April 8 @ 7:00 pm at Grow Food Carolina @ 990 Morrison Dr. Adults only. Their goal is to raise funds for essential teacher training and supplies, additional student programming and outreach for students in need.

Meeting was adjourned @ 7:55
