City Council/Police/Citadel

1. Councilman Gregorie:
    a. Sis Marshall asked about the Air B & B operating in the neighborhood. Contact was made and will get back to Sis/WTNA
    b. Camellias will be planted in the fall to soften the chain link fence along Grove St
    c. Put Gail in contact will person with info on Little Free Library
    d. Gregorie followed up on sidewalk problem on Ashley Ave.
    e. Gordon St hole repair on schedule
    f. Les Schwartz reports more hole/sinkholes on Gordon are imminent
    g. The debris on property at 12th and Dunnemann- owner was contacted about its removal
    h. No new fence along Grove – chain link to stay
    i. Owen Meislin is concerned about event parking allowed inside Hampton Park when it is closed for public recreation/safety. He suggests the city direct cars to the fields behind the Greenhouse, along Addlestone. He said speeding in the park is still a problem.
    j. Gregorie will check to see if we, WT, can plant along dog park fence on Grove St.
2. Police – no representative
3. Citadel – no representation

Growth Management:

Paul and Amanda Gurski are asking for our support in demoing their garage and replacing it with another on its existing footprint (1' set back versus the 3' now required). Sis and the zoning committee will address this and bring it back to the May 15 WTNA meeting

Members and Residents:

- Sunshine- Nothing new to report
- Scheduling – Representative from Parks Dept will be asked to attend May 15 meeting
- YOM May 2017- 1 Marlow, Vincent and Dana McCarthy

New Business:

1. Barb Parker is chairing the spring Trash Bash on Saturday, May 20th. From 8:00 – 10:00 marsh clean up and from 10:00 – 1:00 picnic with yard games and trunk swap (mini yard sale in car trunks). You can participate in one or both events.
2. Sis Marshall will head the nominating committee for board elections in June.

On-Going Business:

1. Dog Park - Bradley Thompson reports that the city has added more mulch and it was spread today. He states that there is about $3900 left in dog park acct.
2. Sis Marshall suggested we develop a design plan for the dog park plantings

Concerns:

1. Beatrice would like a larger swing in McMahon Park for older children
2. Beatrice would also like vines around oak tree to be cut to protect the tree – it is near the Denmark Vesey statue

Meeting was adjourned @ 7:45

Next WTNA meeting is May 15, 2017 @ 7:00
